FROM THE CEO'S DESK

Human trafficking in today's world is seen as a global phenomenon—but in the context of Nepal—it is carried in a distinct form where children are most vulnerable.

3 Angels Nepal came into existence in 2008 with a vision to create a society free from Human Trafficking through Rescue, Prevention, and Rehabilitation.

Coming this far fighting the battle against trafficking, 3 Angels have realised that there is a greater need to rescue children in particular and provide them a safe environment where their future will be secured—this can only happen through proper education to children and life skills to adults.

3 Angels Nepal urges more people to join in this battle, like in the past many have supported us, to successfully take a lead in the fight against trafficking. We wouldn't be where we are today, if it wasn't for our passionate, committed, and fully dedicated staff, our partner organizations, the government line agencies, stakeholders, beneficiaries and public who have supported us tremendously and my grateful heart goes out to each one of them.

The fight is even getting bigger since the aftermath of 2015 earthquake with a target the trend is now shifting from women to children and young girls being forced into sex trade rather than into other businesses. Hence, the need of a greater call for more support to create the Nepali society free from child trafficking.

No-one can do everything, but everyone can do something. May you be the one doing something—to make a difference.

GENESIS OF 3 ANGELS NEPAL

An orphan boy from, Kavre district of Nepal, at the age of eight was fortunate enough to be selected by Asian Aid as one of the first child from Nepal to go to India for his education. In 2004, after completing his education, this same boy Rajendra Gautam comes back to Nepal with the aim to contribute back to the Nepali society. The miraculous journey of 3 Angels Nepal then begins with a blind girl, Meena, found on the street of Pokhara. While Sarah and Rajendra Gautam were walking on the streets, searching a job for Sarah, wife of Dr. Rajendra Gautam, to make their survival in a new place that they had just moved after they were newly married. The only money they had was Rs.270 when they landed in Pokhara on the 4th of April 2004.

It is not surprising to them with what they see in 3 Angels today and how the work of 3 Angels started with nearly zero for they strongly believed in the Lord almighty who blesses every effort to yield fruits to bless as many others.

3 Angels Nepal started with just one girl has grown up to have 178 children in 13 homes with loving and caring foster parents; more than 70 other needy children from difficult backgrounds and circumstances have opportunities for a better education and a bright future which otherwise seem almost impossible. More than 500 children in 3 Angels International Mission School get a holistic education.

Anti-trafficking programs have been extended through seven branch operations across Nepal, covering 72 districts with over 20 million population through 3 Angels Community Radio and various other activities that are being executed effectively to combat human-trafficking.

3AN is allowed access to 21 prisons with services such as education, health and medical assistance to prisoners. Furthermore, it is also authorized to assist children come out of the prisons to 3AN children homes. 3 Angels Community Radio 94.6, Women Safe Haven and Transit homes, Branch operations and border monitoring in four major Indo-Nepal borders have significantly contributed.

to intercept and rescue more than 35,000 vulnerable women and children from being trafficked into India. It is also estimated that at-least 20 million people have been provided access to education and awareness about human trafficking, health and children's programs through our Radio broadcast.

This journey would not have been possible without the generous support of donors, the government of Nepal, stakeholders, security forces, local authorities, and like-minded organizations. Nor would have been anything successful if it was not for 3AN partners, supporters and well-wishers who financially, technically and with sincere prayers continually walked together in this voyage. The competent, dedicated and committed team, strongly supportive board, the ambassadors, internal and external representatives, and staff of 3AN who work untiringly are the key players of the achievements.

Finally, it is all about RESCUE, PREVENTION and REHABILITATION of the vulnerable women and children who in thousands become prey to slavery every-year in Nepal. Therefore, 3AN journey continues until the Human Trafficking and Sex Slavery in Nepal is eradicated.

Your partnership and support to 3AN is pivotal to provide hope, education and protection to individuals and communities who are vulnerable to Human Trafficking and Sex slavery and to prepare them for a better citizen of this nation. "Join the Rescue"

BORDER MONITORING STATION

3AN through its border monitoring stations located in major Indo-Nepal borders rescue victims of human-trafficking. Border checker of these stations interrogate and interview suspects and travellers in these border crossings.

They not only rescue victims from the border but also informs and aware travellers about the risk of being trafficked in India and ensure their safety. Aside interrogating the travellers, these staff rescue victims by raid operations in the places that are disguised as legitimate business—brothels, hotels, and restaurants.

BRANCH OFFICE AND HELP DESK

There are seven branch offices located in different parts of Nepal, mostly in the areas where human-trafficking is prevalent.

Our branch offices and help desk are located in Kanchanpur, Dhangadhi, Nepalgunj, Krishnanagar, Bhairahawa, Chitwan, Birgunj, Kathmandu, and Bhaktapur. These offices operates raid operations, community awareness, receives complaints of domestic violence, stop child marriages in the community, offer legal and psychosocial counselling. Coordination with government line agencies, community leaders, formation of watch groups and mother groups are done through these offices.

LET THE CYCLE DISCONTINUE

Sangita, 23, (name changed) began working at the age of twelve to earn her living. Her story is as horrific as you can imagine. Get ready to shed some tears, if not, hold it within, if you can.

Sangita, 23, (name changed) began working at the age of twelve to earn her living. Her story is as horrific as you can imagine. Get ready to shed some tears, if not, hold it within, if you can.

I was the only child of my mother and her second-husband. Mom, my father, and I were living happily until the eldest sister from my stepfather came and requested to stay with us. As days passed, the quarrel began, there was no peace in our home, often everyday. I had to quit my study and resort to work as a domestic worker when I was just twelve. I had to do dishes and wash clothes.

My mother sent me to Kathmandu to work so that I could earn more. The work was same, only the city and people were different. After I worked there for few months, the house owner sent me back home saying that I was too young to work for them.

I found out that my dad had passed away and my mum went back to live with my stepfather, when I arrived home. I had no place to go. I was alone. Fortunately, one of the elder sisters of my mother allowed me to stay with her for some time. After my mum came to know that I was staying with her sister, she came to take me along with her. Sadly, I became the reasons for everyday quarrel to my two stepbrothers and stepsisters. They did not like me staying with them. My stepsisters started beating me and torturing me. They wanted me out of their home. They forcefully married me to a man whom I never knew about. One day when I came to meet my mother for the first time, after my marriage, my step brother raped me. Later I knew I was pregnant. This event changed my life completely only for worse. I told that I was raped by my brother to my mother and people in the society. Nobody believed me.

*However, they blamed me and began to humiliate me instead. I was hopelessly helpless. The darkness surrounded me. Yet stormy clouds were yet to come. I went to my husband and shared my stories. Like my mother, my husband kicked me out of home. As people say, the circle has no beginning and ending point. It continues, just like the trouble in me continued without any full stop.

Seeing my helplessness and the torture I was going through, some of my friends in the village sent me to Pokhara. I was told that I would get a job in a clothing store. However, I was offered a job as a waitress in a restaurant in Ratnachowk. I worked there for three months. I was asked to sell my body to some of their customers, but I used to refuse so they could not insist further.

The restaurant was sold to another lady. The previous owner asked me to continue to work there with the new owner. Now the owner is female, she would understand my problem, I thought. She changed the name of the restaurant and forced me to serve as a prostitute. After one month as the baby inside me was growing bigger, she forcefully medicated me and took me to a hospital and aborted the baby growing inside of me. After the abortion, I had a very difficult time physically. It did not stop. I was again forced to serve her customer with my body for more than six years. She bought a new restaurant in a new place in Pokhara and took me there to continue the same work. I had to satisfy the libido of fifteen to twenty men per day. The owner used to take all the money. She used to offer night- package for her customer. The customer used to pay Rs.5000.00 (USD 50) per night. It was a good business for her.

SUCCESS STORY

But I was unpaid. One day I refused to obey her. I said I am tired of all these and I did not want to live anymore. She became furious, then. Two people along with her poured a packet of salt and chilly powder inside my vagina. The pain was unbearable! Then, I began to question. Why did GOD allow me to born? I should have died even before I was born. Again thoughts came to me that it was better that I was aborted. At least the cycle that began with my mother would stop with me. I did not want the cycle to continue after me.

I could not tolerate anymore, I somehow managed to escape from the hell I was living in. I went to my mother, stayed with her for few days. I needed to work for my survival. They would not allow me to stay with them forever. Then, I thought of going to Beni to work along with one of my friend. On the way, in Pokhara, she took all my belongings and left me alone. I had nothing left, even my clothes, except that I was wearing. I was rescued when Children and Welfare Department, Kaski informed about my situation to 3 Angels Nepal Pokhara.

The school I went was far from my home. I had to tread on the road even before sun rises. I would be walking alone every morning, and there is forest with wild animals on the both side of the road. When I was in grade seven, walking to my school as usual, one boy started following me. I scolded him often for following me and waiting for me on the way to school.

He continued to wait for me on the way for more than a year. I had to scold him everyday for troubling me. When I was in eighth grade, some village women knew that he used to wait for me on the way to school and trouble me. They then complained about it to my father.

My father was enraged so he beat him publicly. This made the boy furious. The next day, as I was walking to my school, on the same place, he was waiting for me to come. He forcefully grabbed and raped me in the jungle. I shouted, yelled, and cried for help. No one was reached to help. I do not know how this event spread as a wildfire in my village.

My parents had no better option. It was a matter of prestige for my family. No one would marry their daughter who has been raped. Therefore, the villagers and my parents agreed to marry me with the guy who raped me ruthlessly.

The boy married with me, but his family refused to accept me. Just after three days of our marriage, my husband went to India and never contacted me again for two years. During those troublesome years, everyday I was tortured by my mother in-law. She used to beat me saying, 'Go find my son and bring him back.' She asked to me go away from her home. I tolerated her for two years hoping that my husband would come someday. But, he did not. I could not tolerate anymore. I was threatened for life. Then, I eloped with a guy who was from my hometown.

Promising me to take Dhangadi, he took me somewhere else. I refused to stay there. I felt I was at risk and ran away to Attariya. There some women noticed I was hopelessly roaming around. One woman who met me informed about my situation to 3 Angels Nepal, Dhangadi branch. 3 Angels staff inquired me in detail called my parents and I was taken home.

They did not like me running away from my first husband home and were furious at me. In their anger they beat me as hardly as they could. Again, I ran away from my home too. I met another man who asked me to marry him. I was helpless and hopeless too. I needed a shelter and food to live. He offered me all I needed. So I agreed to go with him. As we were crossing India-Nepal border from Dhangadi, 3 Angels Nepal staff inquired us. He told that I was his wife. But could not provide our marriage certificate which 3 Angels demanded. Then, they were more suspicious as they inquired us more.

They called both of our parents. Later I knew he had a wife at his home as well. She took him with her. I was alone now. Even my parents would not accept me. I had no place to go. I am receiving a skill-based training in Pokhara says, Kanchi Maya, 18 (name changed).
